

I prefer to sit in the front of the classroom because it helps me to focus on the teacher.

1.

© 2014 School Counseling is Magical

I learn best when a teacher writes or draws information on the board.

2.

© 2014 School Counseling is Magical

I need to see someone demonstrate how to do something in order to learn how to do it myself.

3.

© 2014 School Counseling is Magical

I remember information better when I am able to create pictures of the information in my mind.

4.

© 2014 School Counseling is Magical

If I don't know how to spell something, I write it down and look at it to determine if I spelled it correctly.

5.

© 2014 School Counseling is Magical

I understand directions better if I write them down.

6.

© 2014 School Counseling is Magical